- Last Week's Meeting: Ed Campbell started the meeting with the flag salute, an invocation and introductions. Our patriotic song was led by Clyde Reynolds and Jim Spencer. President Emrich then introduced Dick Hatcher. Dick awarded a Paul Harris Fellowship to Juan Soto, pictured, citing his faithful service to the Club and the Julius Gius Memorial Rotary Foundation. President Emrich gave members the opportunity to donate to a scholarship fund for the newest child of a member, Brenda Allison's baby Charles Allison II. Larry then thanked Ed McCombs for arranging the last two programs, focusing on local and California water issues. Volunteers are still needed for the Coats 4 Kids project, including someone to write press releases. Carolyn Casavan announced a new project to collect and refurbish used computers that are then given to the needy. See Carolyn for details. Scott Patterson reminded us of the upcoming U-Domes project. Our Rotary exchange student Guillaume Salmon was introduced and spoke briefly to the Club.

Larry urged members with ideas for programs to contact Program Chair Hank Chandler, who is now seeking programs for January through June, 2010. Kathy McCleery led a very entertaining fining session about College football, including a couple of questions about her alma mater, the University of Arkansas. The program started with a craft talk from Dr. Warren Lovell, who was called up to the National Guard on September 15, 1940. During the war Warren became a pilot, flying a B-25 (pictured), in the Pacific theater. Warren observed first hand the Nagasaki atom bomb blast. Paul Bramson then followed with a craft talk about his life and business which included a power point presentation about patriots, our country and our flag.

U-Dome Community Project:

Funded by a $10,000 grant from our Club the U-Dome at River Haven II project is underway. During the first work day last Saturday the site was prepared for the domes, which will be assembled this coming Saturday, September 26. Clyde Reynolds is pictured doing his share last Saturday. Contact Scott Patterson or Jim Deardorff for more information.
