Lynda then introduced the visitors and guests. President Larry, in full leader mode, took charge. Curtis Cormane said that those wanting to help build something could join him in sand castle construction at the District Conference in Ventura. Larry awarded Master PURLS graduation certificates to himself and Christina Rust. Sally Crain was then awarded a Paul Harris Fellowship in acknowledgment of her consistent dedication and contributions to our Club. The President then acknowledged the passing of beloved member John Wolfe, reported on Project Compassion and explained that all could attend the Board meeting the next day. Larry complimented Marc Vertin on his grant programs presentation last week, with over 100 Rotarians attending. Melody Namikas gave us an update on the Ventura High School Rotoract Club. Lynda Girtsman was singled out for her major work and success in facilitating the upcoming District 5240 Conference in Ventura. Norbert Tan, in his Rotary Moment, talked about his welcome to the Ventura community by Bill Kearney, Rosa Lee Measures and others, as well as what it was like, years ago, being one of the youngest members of the Club. John McConica II fined, the members fending many of his questions without penalty. Kris Taylor updated us on Coats for Kids. The program was an exceptional real estate panel moderated by Roger Case. Eric Baucom spoke about market trends, illustrating his points with detailed charts. Roger followed on the topics of rentals and leases.

Elynn Dembowski offered advice on lender owned real estate (REO). Steve Doll told us about current commercial property issues. Short sales were explained in detail by RoseAnn Hill. Melody Namikas gave her perspective on investing in the current market. A lively question and answer session concluded the presentation.
