Last Week's Meeting:

David Loe, pictured, led us in the salute to our flag and offered an invocation involving wise words from Mark Twain. After a song led by RoseAnn Hill and Jim Spencer David concluded his portion of the meeting with an introduction of many visitors and guests. President Larry called Christina Rust to the podium, where she awarded a hard earned Blue Badge to Jeff King, (both are pictured), citing Jeff's involvement in many Club and community projects. Larry announced that our Fireside Chat had been postponed until early next year. Rosa Lee Measures spoke about the upcoming December 4 Holiday Party, a modified potluck with a carving station. Sign-ups begin next week. President Emrich welcomed Brenda Allison back following the recent birth of her son. Jerry Beckerman explained volunteer opportunities in the Segue Career Mentors program. Kris Taylor gave a detailed progress report about the Coats for Kids project, 44 collection sites being set up across the county. Rob vanNieuwburg reminded us about the Children's Christmas Party on December 9, explaining that 50 children would be invited this year. The Rotary Moment came from Bob Donaldson, speaking about Polio Plus and the prevalence of the disease in the United States before vaccines became available in his youth. After fining about historical facts, led by finemaster Melody Namikas, and a Happy Dollars session expertly inserted by President Larry while the program was setting up, Lieutenant Colonel Bryan Allen was introduced. On leave as an American Airlines pilot since the 911 attacks, Bryan has been leading Air National Guard efforts in developing and deploying the Modular Airborne Fire Fighting System. The Lieutenant Colonel showed some pictures of the C 130 aircraft in action.

Holiday Schedule: The Club will be dark on November 25, December 23 and December 30. The Children's Christmas Party will be on December 9, offsite at the Crowne Plaza.

Coats for Kids: Four Seasons Cleaners is now accepting coats for kids of all sizes, and adults, at 4020 E. Main Street in Ventura.
