

The Rotary Club of Apple Valley invites you to compete at the 8th Annual Wannatouchama Chili Cook Off!

2009 Battle of the Restaurants

Think you have the best chili in the Victor Valley?

Prove it!

Compete alongside world-class
professional chili cooks, live music, bounce house, shopping, chili tasting and much more!

Sat., Oct. 24

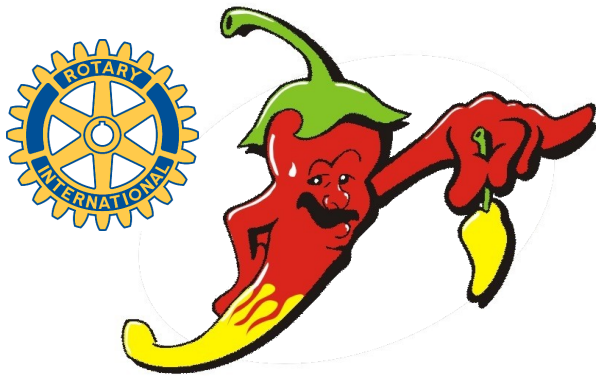

10am - 4pm

Lion's Park
in Apple Valley

(Hwy. 18, east of Dale Evans Parkway)

- Restaurant spaces are limited. $25 donation to compete. Larger sponsor opportunities are also available.
- Participants get: 10 x 10 space; 1 event t-shirt; listed in press releases. Winner gets plaque, exposure and mention in post-event ad.
- You provide: booth (canopy, table, chairs, cooking, etc); minimum 5 - 10 gal. of chili. The more you bring, the more people can taste and vote! (must have a filler of either beans or pasta to distinguish from professional competition chili).
- The public receives tasting kits and will vote by ballots for best tasting chili!

Participants must provide their own generator if power is needed. You can drive to your space to unload, and all vehicles must be back out of the gate by 9 a.m. Break down is after awards ceremony, approximately 3 p.m.

“Battle of the Restaurants” is a separate division from the professional chili cooks. Attendees will have ballots on which to vote for their favorite chili among participating restaurants. To receive a taste of your chili, they will present their tasting cup. Extra ballots will be available to purchase.

Dress up your booth! Have fun! Promote your restaurant!

Wannatouchama Chili Cook-Off is a regional qualifying event for the International Chili Society World Championship, and has been building a loyal audience for eight years. Get in on the Battle of the Restaurants—it is sure to become a coveted award in the High Desert!
