

The Desertarian

Newsletter of the Rotary Club of Palm Springs, California

2010-2011 Year January 19th 2011

issue 11/01

Meeting Notes for January 19th
by Rotarian Max Morgan

Wow what A day! The room was filled with many people and much joy.

Christine opened meeting at 12:13.

Next Palm Springs High Principle Ricky Wright led the Pledge and our own Principle Tony led the 4-WAY Test.

Denise introduced our guest, a room full, I could not keep up. To many.

Three visiting Rotarians Charles, Craig and Toby.

Our guest were former Rotarians Phil Kaplan and Jona. Jackie Glenn, Johns wife and her mom Marge. Howard and James from the Chamber.

Announcements- February 29th collection of items start for April 2nds Rags sale.

- Judy wants us to start thinking about items for the Silent Auction at our 70th Anniversary Gala.

Mr Glenn did a wonderful job coordinating the Job Shadowing day. This is where all of the joy filled the room.

Fern Rudd introduced our our guest speakers Dr Mckune and Ricky Wright.

Testimony from the students was both funny and inspirational. They all were thankful for the opportunity, All seem to have had a great time and learned quite a bit..

All of this fun and no marble game.

Happy Dollars- Jaque for the time she spent in 29 Palms with Mr Dowler, Karl for JJ letter to Benoit and her wanting to participate with the anti prison movement, Ed Ellis for this day and Denise Ellis for the arrest of the suspect who stole the laptops at her school.

Meeting ended 1:00 PM