by Moore, Teresa S.

There will be no regular meeting this week. However, there is a fellowship lunch. Those attending will order off the menu and the club will pick up the tab.

Cheyenne Rotary and Rotoract Clubs to Host PolioPlus Fundraiser

by Markus, Jamie

The Cheyenne area Rotary and Rotaract Clubs invite you to grab a friend or two and join us for Lunch at Texas Roadhouse on Wednesday, August 17th to raise money to End Polio Now. You will enjoy a pulled-pork sandwich, two Texas Roadhouse sides, and a beverage of your choice. The $10 tickets can be purchased at your regular meeting or at <http://www.cheyennerotaryfundraiser.org/>. Order five or more meals and weâ€™ll even deliver! There is no regular Wednesday meeting that week due to the club picnic.

Club Service Opportunity

by Schwem, Mary

Many volunteers are needed for the Moonlight Cowboy Ride, August 6. Please see Sharon Green, Chris McCrady or Lori Schoene if you would like to volunteer or look for a sign up sheet on the tables at this week's meeting. This is a fun and important club fundraiser enabling the club to participate in more world community service projects.

Moonlight Cowboy Ride Needs Volunteers

by Schwem, Mary

The Moonlight Cowboy Ride needs your help on August 6th. The primary need is for intersection guides. You'll receive a great t-shirt, a delicious breakfast burrito and stand on a street corner ringing a cowbell and cheering the bike riders. You also have the very important job of ensuring riders don't get lost. This is a great way to spend an evening with a friend and serve a great cause! Respond to Teresa Moore, cheyennerotary@msn.com with your hearty "can do"!

Congratulations, Lori Milin

by Schwem, Mary

Congratulation go out to Lori Millin for her appointment as Co-Chair of the Membership Committe for District 5440.
