Jeff Fegan, Executive Director
DFW International Airport

Jeffrey P. Fegan serves as the Chief Executive Officer of Dallas/Fort Worth (DFW) International Airport, overseeing the fourth-busiest airport in the world.

Mr. Fegan has served as CEO since 1994, functioning as the chief administrator for the Airport and recommending policies to the DFW Airport Board for planning, constructing, operating, and regulating the Airport.

Under Mr. Fegan's direction, DFW has become one of the top connecting airport hubs in the world, serving 192 domestic and international destinations. For the past five consecutive years, DFW has ranked among the world's top five large airports for customer service in surveys conducted by Airports Council International. The Airport has also adopted a comprehensive Sustainability Program in pursuit of environmental responsibility, and has established an impressive track record for partnership on aviation safety and research.

Mr. Fegan joined DFW in December 1984 as Chief Planner, and later served as Assistant Director of Planning, Director of Planning and Engineering, and then Deputy Executive Director of Finance and Administration prior to becoming CEO.

Prior to coming to DFW Airport, Mr. Fegan was the Noise Abatement Officer at Westchester County Airport in New York. He was in the aviation consulting business from 1978 to 1983. He received a Bachelor of Science in Geography from Frostburg University, Maryland and a Master of City Planning from the Georgia Institute of Technology. He completed the Stanford Executive Program at Stanford University and the Advanced Airport Management Course at the International Aviation Management Training Institute in Montreal, Quebec.

Mr. Fegan is an Accredited Airport Executive, and serves on the boards of directors for several industry associations, including Airports Council International - North America, an organization for which he is also past Chairman, the U.S. Travel Association and CEO Roundtable. Mr. Fegan is also a leader in the Dallas and Fort Worth business communities serving as a member of the Board of Directors for the Dallas Regional Chamber, Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, Dallas Citizens Council, and Dallas and Fort Worth World Affairs Council. He is also on the Advisory Council to Pan-American Society of Dallas/Fort Worth.

Be a Vibrant and Visionary Model of Service Above and Beyond Self
President Fred Brown called the meeting to order, commenting on what a great time of the year it is in north Texas. Nolan Duck gave the invocation, and noted that in addition to the loss of former members Lou Patterson and Sam Montgomery that Rod Pirtle’s sister-in-law had passed away. Please keep all of the families in your prayers. Cindy Cummings led the Pledge of Allegiance, “The Star Spangled Banner,” followed by a sincere “Happy Birthday” to President Fred. Jodie Ray introduced our visitors and guests. Dax Seale introduced our Hub and web advertisers for the week.

Patsy Watson gave a first-quarter update on the PCRC Foundation. She said that well over a quarter of the club have contributed so far this year and that the checks have been very generous. She read the names of some of the more recent contributors. At that point PP Rick Amsberry brought his check to the podium! Patsy also reviewed the levels of the Frank Monroe Fellowship.

Jim Zapffe announced the next PCR Connect, which will be Mon, Nov. 5th. VP Eric Heitkamp announced that the 1+1 Membership Meeting was a great success, and the club already has a net gain of five members for the year. He then reviewed the attendance requirements and ways to make-up missed meetings, as well as the procedure for leaves of absence. The details are also on our website.

Karen Farris reminded the club that November will be “Feed the Hungry Month,” and that she hopes that every member will participate in at least several of the events. She reviewed our ongoing participation in Ronald McDonald House, Vet to Vet and Meals on Wheels, as well as our newer events, Scots 4 Turkeys and the Snider Plaza Tree Lighting. She also announced Lunch with a Veteran at the Veterans Day meeting on Nov. 9.

Dax Seale introduced our new members speaking today, with the reminder that our club is like a box of chocolates, some are sweeter than others and some are a little nutty. First to speak was former member Ruth Knost. She said that she is married, with four children, and lives in The Colony. She designed and built her house; it is designed to entertain large groups. She hosts events for charitable organizations, and feels that it is very important to help those who are less fortunate.

Next to speak was Shawn Foster, whose father was in Dallas Rotary for many years. He grew up in Dallas and attended SMU. He has three children, the oldest is at UT. He said six years ago he went through a divorce, but was rescued through his faith. He was formerly a member of the Plano Rotary.

Last to speak was Griff Collie, former member of the Oak Cliff RC and President. He is married with two sons. He has been an attorney for twenty years and was a banker for fifteen years before that. He enjoys flying. He is on the University of North Texas College of Music Advisory Board, and his family has given an advisory at UNT for his father, C.C. Collie

Air Travel

I feel about airplanes the way I feel about diets. It seems to me they are wonderful things for other people to go on.

~Jean Kerr

It is impossible to travel faster than the speed of light, and certainly not desirable, as one's hat keeps blowing off.

~Woody Allen

No one travelling on a business trip would be missed if he failed to arrive.

~Thorstein Veblen

He who would travel happily must travel light.

~Antoine de Saint-Exupery

Flying may not be all plain sailing, but the fun of it is worth the price.

~Amelia Earhart

I realized that if I had to choose, I would rather have birds than airplanes.

~Charles Lindbergh
