

DOUG HOLFORD

Alden D. (Doug) Holford rejoined Bellaire/Southwest Houston Rotary Club a couple of years before his death in 2004, after an extended absence. He was a graduate of Harvard Law School, and published an article on The Limits of Strict Liability for Product Design and Manufacture in the 1973 Texas Law Journal. He represented class action plaintiffs fighting against big tobacco interests during his early career, and in his final years engaged in a general civil law practice. He is survived by a daughter
