The Four-Way Test
of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build good will and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First: the development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
Second: high ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his/her occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
Third: the application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his/her personal business and community life;
Fourth: the advancement of international understanding, good will and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Mission Statement for the Fort Wayne Rotary Club
To maintain its preeminent position as a fellowship of business and professional leaders dedicated to service above self, and committed to provide direction and resources in the four areas of service.

The American Museum of Magic
Not every summer job is a “magic carpet ride.” But Katherine Carlton’s 2010 summer internship, at the American Museum of Magic, was just such an experience!

Located in Marshall, MI, this Museum boasts the largest collection of magic memorabilia, including thousands of original posters, open to the public. It also hosts a summer lecture series with such alluring titles as “Mind Readers, Mesmerists, & Magnetic Ladies” and “Women in Boxes.”

In addition to cataloging the poster collection and giving Museum tours, Katherine also got to participate in magic tricks demonstrations.

Does she now have super-human powers?

Well, perhaps so. She certainly proved to our live Rotary audience that – even in high heels … and even standing on one leg – she is no pushover!

We Want To Pick Your Brain!
On Monday, March 5, we will devote part of our regular club meeting to a brainstorming session to come up with brilliant ideas for our club’s Centennial Project.

We want to hear your ideas for a blockbuster project that will have a major positive impact on our community, commemorate and honor our club's 100th anniversary, and provide a lasting legacy in the spirit of Rotary.

Get fired up and come to next Monday’s meeting ready to brainstorm with your fellow members about our Centennial Project!
Saying Good-bye To Our February Student Rotarians

Kara Peppler, from Wayne H.S., will attend Indiana U. and hopes to be an orthopaedic surgeon.

Libby Geilser, from South Side H.S., will attend the U. of Indianapolis and major in criminal justice.
Satire, Anyone?

The Capitol Steps – a political satire group – will present its show “The Honest Political Truth” at the Niswonger Theater in Van Wert, Ohio on March 24 at 7:30 PM. Tickets are $30.00. And sign-up deadline is March 7.

You can enjoy this show AND help Rotary International at the same time! Contact Dee Hoffman (672-1099 or DHFWRotary@aol.com) for details.

International Youth Exchange Expo Is Coming

See the attached information. Please share it with anyone who might be interested – your kids, grandkids, neighborhood kids, employees, family friends, etc. For further details, contact Dick Conklin (385-1124 or dicc@aol.com)

There’s An App For That!

That’s right Rotarians! For all the iPhone users out there, you can now download the free ClubRunner app. This app gives you access to the clubs member list, and can also help you locate nearby clubs. Another really neat feature about the member list is that it gives you the option to import members into your cell phones contact list, picture and all! To login to the ClubRunner app, you need your ClubRunner login and password. Sorry Android users, an app has not yet been developed, but is in the works!

International Youth Exchange EXPO (IYEE)

What is the EXPO?

The 2012 EXPO is the second year of the collaborative initiative of Rotary, IPFW’s Office of International Education and the Division of Continuing Studies and the David Hefner International Fund. The EXPO is designed to:

1. introduce high school students and their parents to the many international opportunities available to them. It will be held at the IPFW Student Union ballroom on Saturday, March 24, 2012 from 10am – 1:30pm.

2. introduce students and parents to the many exceptional community resources that provide scholarships for high school students to travel and study overseas. This would include the David Hefner International Fund, the Chapman Sister Cities Scholarships.

3. explore the very real possibility that an international experience could potentially impact college selection/course of studies and a future career. Certainly, international study and travel will be a life changing experience.

The EXPO will include:

More than a dozen international exchange programs will have exhibits. Both short term (summer) and long term (academic year) exchange programs will be present.

IPFW will have exhibits from numerous areas of study to high light international studies, experiences and internships, including: business, engineering, languages, hotel/restaurant management and health & human services.

Businesses/companies will exhibit to introduce students to the reality that the global market is very much a part of our local economy. Also, that in 5+ years from now, with the combination of international experience(s) and college studies, there will be local career opportunities. Each exhibiting business/company will not only provide information about their business but also how the business is currently involved in the global market.

Two Resource Centers will also be available for students and parents. First, there will be a center to address how a family can afford an opportunity to travel and study abroad. The second center will provide information on how future college admissions and course of studies can be affected by an international experience

Most importantly

For the student(s) and their parent(s), the EXPO is a free and drop-in event.
