Shane Burr was born in Silverton, Oregon and moved to the California bay area at eight. One year later his parents bought their first home on the California coast in Half Moon Bay. Shane had the great fortune of growing up surrounded by ocean and redwoods, being raised in a happy and stable home, in a caring and active community.

Shane joined the Army in 1974 and served four years. While stationed with the 509th Airborne in Vicenza, Italy he met his wife, Donna Bridgman, a Georgia peach and they were married in 1977. Shane and Donna have four children and three grand children. In 1982 Shane graduated from San Francisco State University with a BA in Theatre and had a short career as an actor.

In 1984 the family moved from California to Sandy Springs, Georgia and one year later they bought their first home in Woodstock, Georgia. Currently Shane and his family live in Canton, Georgia.

Shane left the job market in 1985 to buy a sanitation business. From 1986-1989 Shane enjoyed singing with the Atlanta Symphony Choir and was known as "the singing garbage man". In 1990 Shane sold his sanitation business and purchased a sports and fitness club; the City Club Sports & Fitness, which he owned and operated for 17 years. Shane is currently and Independent Herbalife Distributor.

In 1988 Shane was invited to join the Canton Rotary Club and immediately fell in love with Rotary and the ideal of "Service Above Self". As a member of the Rotary Club of Canton Shane has served as Board Member (1996-1998) (2000-2002), Youth Service Chair (1990-1993), Club Secretary (1991-1992), Treasurer (1992-1993), President Elect (1993-1994), and Club President (1994-1995). At the district level Shane has served as District Historian, GRSP Trustee, Youth Service Chair (2003-2005), Area VI Assistant Governor (2001-2004), Club Extension Chair (2005-2007), and Annual Programs Fund Chair (2007-2008). Shane is a Multiple Paul Harris Fellow, Paul Harris Sustaining Member, GRSP Will Watt fellow and Hue Thomas Fellow. Shane and Donna are also Benefactors and Bequest Society Members.
