Don't Forget: Bring the Kids to See Sinterklaas!

by Mosley-Matchett, J.D.

Sinterklaas will attend this week's Rotary Sunrise meeting, so be certain to bring the kids along. And for all of the members who have been naughty (or nice) the traditional wit of Nigel Twohey will be offered via Sergeant Jonathan. Although Rotarian Nigel can't join us in person, he is directing the frivolity from afar. He so very astutely noted, "It will be better if Jonathan does the reading as Sinterklass has a terrible Dutch accent and cannot pronounce anything without a g!"

Be prepared for lots of fun...

10Ten10 Photo Competition – And the Winners Are!

by Bryan, Andrea

The early afternoon of Saturday 11th December at the *Cecile Crighton Community Park in Spotts-Newlands was lovely, with a fresh easterly breeze blowing. Here the winners of the 10Ten10 Photo Competition – "A Day in the Life of the Cayman Islands" - gathered to receive their prizes accompanied by parents, grandparents, siblings and other relatives and well-wishers. After the prizes were given out everyone remained behind to mingle, socialize and enjoy drinks as well as a sumptuous spread of salad, fruit, chicken and sirloin prepared by Rotary Sunrise President Michael.

On hand to make the announcements and to congratulate the very talented winners were three of the four partners in this very rewarding project. They were President Michael Levitt of the Rotary Club of Grand Cayman Sunrise; Frank Balderamos, General Manager of the National Trust for the Cayman Islands and Rotary Sunrise Youth Director; also Natalie Urquhart, Director of the National Gallery of the Cayman Islands. President Andrea Stevens of the Rotary Club of Cayman Brac was unavoidably absent due to a social that the club was hosting for the Senior Citizens of Cayman Brac.

Rotarians and prospective Rotarian Finley Josephs, as well as Rotary Sunrise's partners, were all thanked for their hard work in bringing the project to fruition.

In the 5-9 age group the winners and categories were:-

Mason Oelschlager - Close-Up
Daniel Grant - Floral
Jagger Linford – Reflections (overall winner for the age group)
Cassidy Amesbury – Lines
Gioenne Rocero – Water
Shania Williams – Animals
Still Life – no winner

In the 10-14 age group the winners and categories were:-

Abijith Anu – Floral (overall winner for the age group)
Raven Leslie – Reflections
Halley Manderson – Animals
Erin Welds – Lines
Erin Welds – Water
Connor O’Dea – Close-Up
Still Life – no winner

In the 15-18 age group the winners and categories were:-

Demetria Jennings – Water
James Christian – Floral
James Christian – Close-Up
Keristin Scott – Animals
Kenneth Salcena – Reflections
Kathleen Gracey – Lines (overall winner for the age group)
Still Life – no winner

Each winner of a category received 2 tickets to the Hollywood Theatres in Camana Bay as well as CI$50 in iTunes gift cards. The two winners of two categories each received double the prizes. To crown it all, the overall winner in each age group, in addition to the theatre tickets and gift cards, received a state-of-the-art Nikon S510 camera with HD video and still imaging, zoom lens, 12.2 mp along with 1 film card. The value of each camera is just over US$200.

N.B. There were four winners from Cayman Brac, viz. Daniel Grant, Abijith Anu, James Christian and Keristin Scott. Keristin and her mother attended the prize-giving.

The three F’s!

by Levitt, Michael

Fellow Sunrise Rotarians, this time of the year reminds me of the three F’s: Family, Friendship and Fellowship and for the most part, with many lovely memories of days gone by of seeing long lost family; renewing friendships and possibly enjoying too much fellowship!

It is a special time!

Irrespective of one’s faith, you cannot but help to feel the excitement in the air; the beautiful lights; the decorations and even though this time is leading up to Christmas, for others it is special too. Muslims recently celebrated Eid to mark the end of Ramadan; Hindus celebrated Karthikai Deepam, a very ancient festival of lights and coincidentally, Hanukkah, also a festival of lights was observed by the Jewish faith earlier this month.

I would like to suggest another F for this time too: Forgiveness. Let us consider those that we might have hurt or treated badly and ask them for their forgiveness; but I think more importantly, it is the right time forgive those that we feel have wronged us – it sets you free!

May I take this opportunity to wish all of you and your families, a Blessed Holiday and a New Year full of Hope, Good Health, Happiness, lots of Laughter, many Smiles (Dr. Bert!) and let us have Fun (PDG Ali P!).

Prez Mike Visits With Past Sunriser Claudette St. Reid

by Levitt, Michael

Our President Michael attended the meeting of the New Kingston club last Friday and spent some time with past-Sunriser Claudette St. Reid. This was one of the only two Rotary clubs in our District that was "men only" until Rotarian Claudette was inducted as a member in April!
