

Oshawa Rotary Ribfest 2014
September 5 – 7
Lakeview Park

The 13th Annual Oshawa Rotary Ribfest is fast approaching and we are pleased to announce the Entertainment Lineup for this fun weekend.

A mix of country, rock and old time goodies will excite the crowd from the stage each day. Great local entertainers as well as award winning groups like the Good Brothers will be headlining again this year.

Come on down to Lakeview Park and enjoy the fun, have some ribs and raise a drink as we party all weekend.

The Argues

The Argues are a Canadian touring rock band which began in Toronto, now based near Barrie, Ontario. The band consists of multi-instrumentalist/ vocalist sisters Lauren (born December 10, 1997) and Sabrina (born May 28, 2000) along with drummer Chantale (their mom) and guitar player Michael (their dad). With natural references to TV's "The Partridge Family", The Argues' sound is more reminiscent of The Rolling Stones, Tom Petty and Fleetwood Mac. The band performs rock and blues covers and original songs.

Blue Radio

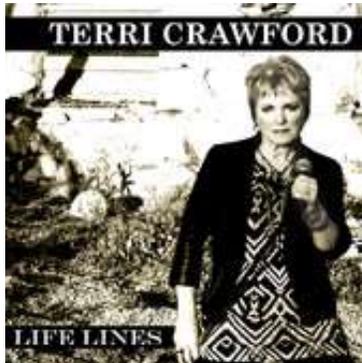

In 2008, seven musical veterans and Blue Rodeo fans formed Blue Radio, with a vision to assemble a full authentic Blue Rodeo experience. The love of one band has brought this show forward to give audiences an experience they won't forget.

Blue Radio delivers all the classic hits, spanning 16 albums over Blue Rodeo's award-winning career of 30 years (and counting). With outstanding vocals and musicianship - from the smooth country sounds of the pedal steel and piano to the rocking sounds of electric guitars - Blue Radio emulates the entire spectrum of Blue Rodeo's sound flawlessly.

Terri Crawford Band

Terri Crawford possesses one of the most recognizable voices in Canadian music. She recorded four albums for RCA and Attic records in the 1980's which included the hit recordings, "One Time for Old Times", "Running", "Get Away" and "I'll Be Back" to name just a few. Terri's voice earned her two JUNO nominations and she has sung or voiced numerous commercials for products in Canada and around the world!

2011 finds the Terri Crawford Band back with a new pop/rock CD titled, "Life Lines".

Amy Rose

Part down-home country girl, part sophisticated musical veteran and “Redneck Diva,” Amy Rose has already earned a reputation for being one of Ontario, Canada’s best-known secrets. From her early years on small-town fair and festival stages, to her recent radio airplay, charting and awards, this Rose with the soaring vocal range and pop country sensibilities is on a journey to the world stage and beyond...THIS is the beginning! Amy received 4 nominations in the 2013 International Music and Entertainment Association awards, for which she won Country Entertainer of the Year.

The Good Brothers

The Good Brothers have gained a worldwide audience over the course of their accomplished career. They were honoured as inductees into the Canadian Country Music Hall of Fame. The sibling harmonies are still there. The fleetness of banjo, guitar, and autoharp is joined by fiddle and mandolin. The songs still come straight from their hearts to your tapping toes and the smile on your face.

Fleetwood Mix

Fleetwood Mix is a stunning visual and musical tribute to Fleetwood Mac.

Each veteran player in this 5 piece tribute band brings their spirit to re-create, with incredible accuracy, the look and feel of Fleetwood Mac. With the solo hits of Stevie Nicks as part of the show, the harmonies, instrumentation and on-stage chemistry has surprised and captivated audiences from coast-to-coast.

Fiddlestix

Canada has fallen in love with the magnetic sound of Fiddle Rock and the group that is introducing it to the world. Fiddlestix is inspired by North America's extreme electric violinist: Steve Bowen, a Yamaha endorsee practically born with a violin in his hand, playing around the world since the age of four and stunning audiences with his limitless abilities. Fiddle Rock is the clarion call to his intense style, which seamlessly blends a unique and edgy mix of soaring solos, scorching riffs and innovative melodies. The sound is so unique to Bowen that even jigs and reels come to bear the captivating "stamp" of Fiddlestix.
