

NH L.E.A.D. Speakers

Major General (ret) Kenneth Clark has had a very distinguished career in the NH Air National Guard where he reached the rank of Major General. Gov Benson nominated him to serve as the first Air Force Officer to be the Adjutant General with overall responsibility for both Army and Air National Guard in Nov 2004. General Clark served as the Military Chief of Staff to the Governor and the Executive Head of the Adjutant General's Department. He has and continues to serve on several boards of both commercial and non-profit organizations.

Michelle Holt-Shannon serves as the Associate Director of NH Listens in the Carsey Institute at the University of New Hampshire. New Hampshire Listens works at the local and state level to facilitate and support civil, public deliberation of complex and often polarizing issues. Her work is focused on dialogue design, training facilitators, and working with local and state leaders to create opportunities for informed conversation on social, economic, and policy matters. Michele lives with her family in Dover, NH.

Ken Bosse is an Accredited Certified Coach in the International Coaching Federation as well as a licensed coach in the Assemblies of God. He has years of experience coaching people personally, professionally, maritally, spiritually and working with teams. His passion is to see people move towards fulfillment. He has also taught numerous people through the "Quick Start" program the initial skills of coaching. For 22 years Ken has been the senior pastor at New Life Church in Raymond, NH, and is an Executive Board member of the New Hampshire Alliance.

Edward French, D.A., M.B.A. has held a number of leadership positions over a 30+ year professional career. He is currently the Academic Director of the Graduate Business Programs at Franklin Pierce University. Ed's instructional focus is on leadership, communications and organizational behavior studies. Ed joined the academic world after a 27 year career in the financial services industry. His most recent position in the private sector was Vice President and Team Leader, Commercial Banking, for Citizens Bank. Beyond his professional experience, Ed has had significant experience in leadership positions in a volunteer capacity. As a resident of Raymond for the past 24 years, Ed has been a member (and chair) of the Board of Selectmen, a member (and chair) of the School Board, a member (and chair) of the Budget Committee, and a member of the Economic Development Committee. He is currently a member of the steering committee of Positive Raymond, and is a facilitator for NH Listens, an initiative of the Carsey Institute at the University of New Hampshire. Ed is active with Leadership New Hampshire and was a member of the Class of 2010.

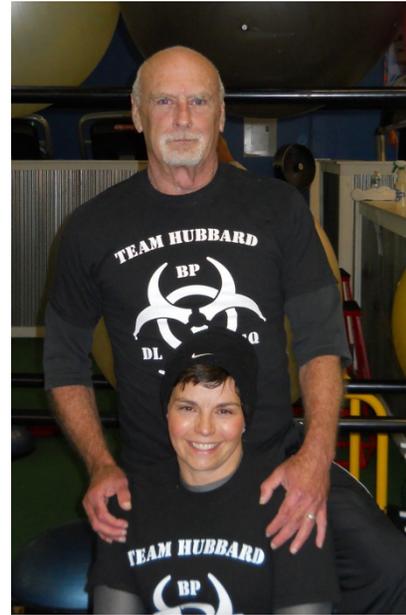

Andru Volinsky is a shareholder and general counsel to the northern New England law firm of Bernstein Shur, with offices in Manchester and Portland. His practice focuses on commercial, employment and probate litigation. He has been lead counsel in the Local Government Center litigation and in the Claremont Education Funding suits, as well as many others. He is a member of the NH, Maine and Massachusetts Bars.

Peter H. Hubbard

Retired Navy with 20 years of service including 3 tours in Vietnam - Also had tours with Special Forces and Submarine duty. After leaving the Navy worked as a Senior Executive in the high tech industry Then he Management Consultant working with fortune 500 companies doing Company assessment and providing training on Leadership. After retirement he became a Certified Personal Trainer and Strength Coach - clients range from high school football players to men and women in their 80's. In addition Peter is a world ranked powerlifter who holds many State, National and World Records. At the age of 74 he still competes at least 4 times a year across the country. Peter will be assisted in his presentation by his wife Nona. Nona is a Vice President/Branch Manager with Citizens Bank in Raymond and is a active member of the Rotary. She is also a accomplished powerlifter with over 30 First Place finishes. She holds American and World Records in the Squat, Benchpress and Deadlift. In addition she was ranked the number one overall female lifter at 148lbs by the 100% Raw Federation for the years 2010 and 2011.

Donald DeAngelis is the Fire Chief of the Epping Fire Department. Prior to Epping, Don served with the Concord Fire Department as a Battalion Commander and Bureau Chief responsible for the organizations professional standards and development. In addition, Don worked in finance for almost two decades. He holds several degrees including a Masters of Education with a concentration in Organizational Development.

