"I want to be a participant, not an onlooker. That's why I joined Rotary."

— Rob Pennicott, Tasmanian of the Year 2012

Rob Pennicott is a Tasmanian Rotarian and founder of the award-winning tourism business, Pennicott Wilderness Journeys. Sustainability is a big part of Rob’s business philosophy. He donated $100,000 to a project to eradicate a feral species from Tasman Island, saving 50,000 seabirds annually. In 2011, Rob circumnavigated Australia in a 5.4m rubber dinghy raising over $290,000 for conservation and helping Rotary’s End Polio Now campaign.

Like Rob, you can join Rotary to make a difference. There’s a club near you. Join the conversation by visiting rotaryaustralia.org.au

Rotary. Humanity in motion.

Rob Pennicott is a key speaker the Annual Rotary 9800 Conference on March 14 – 16, 2013 in Albury.
“What do feral cats and polio have in common? Rotary, for starters.”

— Rob Pennicott, Tasmanian of the Year 2012

Rob Pennicott is a Tasmanian Rotarian and founder of the award-winning tourism business, Pennicott Wilderness Journeys. Sustainability is a big part of Rob’s business philosophy. He donated $100,000 to a project to eradicate a feral species from Tasman Island, saving 50,000 seabirds annually. In 2011, Rob circumnavigated Australia in a 5.4m rubber dinghy raising over $290,000 for conservation and helping Rotary’s End Polio Now campaign.

Like Rob, you can join Rotary to make a difference. There’s a club near you. Join the conversation by visiting rotaryaustralia.org.au

Rotary. Humanity in motion.

Rob Pennicott is a key speaker at the Annual Rotary 1800 Conference on March 14–16, 2013 in Albury.
"I believe in dreaming big. That’s why I joined Rotary."

— Rob Pennicott, Tasmanian of the Year 2012

Rob Pennicott is a Tasmanian Rotarian and founder of the award-winning tourism business, Pennicott Wilderness Journeys. Sustainability is a big part of Rob’s business philosophy. He donated $100,000 to a project to eradicate a feral species from Tasman Island, saving 50,000 seabirds annually. In 2011, Rob circumnavigated Australia in a 5.4m rubber dinghy raising over $290,000 for conservation and helping Rotary’s End Polio Now campaign.

Like Rob, you can join Rotary to make a difference. There’s a club near you. Join the conversation by visiting rotaryaustralia.org.au

Rotary. Humanity in motion.