Harris' Homilies: Words of Wisdom By Rotary Founding Father Paul Harris

"No American Rotarian could meet the Japanese, Chinese, Philippine, Australian, and New Zealand Rotarians whom we met in four and one-half months of travel without feeling that his outlook has been broadened, his mental process sweetened, his life enriched by the experience. There is one fact that stands out clear and huge as Mount Olympus, or Fujiyama for that matter, and that is the fact that all countries need all countries; not one of them can be spared."

"Of the population of the earth, no race has impressed us as being beyond the pale of decency; all have their codes of correct living although many of them differ greatly from ours. Travelers who insist upon measuring other countries by their own yardsticks find them lacking, of course; some folks are far too much disposed to feel that their civilization is the norm and that any variance from it is wrong."

Notice- Suspicious Men Hanging Out Under Tree

As I was walking back to my office after BERC lunch today, thinking about the wonderful things that BERC does, I ran into these two shady looking characters, hanging about at 20th and Eye.

Notably there is often a small crowd so homeless and needy people hanging out at the exact spot, but these two ruffians obviously scared the others away.

We need to notify BERC security!

The College of Rotary Knowledge-

"Regular attendance is essential to a strong and active Rotary club. The emphasis on attendance is traced back to 1922, when Rotary International announced a worldwide attendance contest that motivated thousands of Rotarians to achieve 100 percent attendance year after year. Many Rotarians take great pride in maintaining their 100 percent record in their own club or by making up at other Rotary club meetings.

Rotary's e-clubs make it easy for members to make up meetings online. To earn attendance credit, Rotarians log on to an e-club's Web site, read online material on a range of subjects, post comments, and submit a form to the club secretary. Find a complete list of Rotary e-clubs and the languages "spoken" at www.rotary.org.

Although the RI ByLaws require members to attend only 60 percent of all meetings, many clubs encourage more frequent attendance because the absence of any member deprives the club of the value of its diversified membership, the contributions of all members to ongoing club projects, and the personal fellowship of each member. The club's board of directors may determine appropriate reasons for excusing absences. From time to time, proposals have been made to give attendance credit for various reasons or to lower the minimum requirement, but such attempts have not been adopted by the Council on Legislation.

In 2001, the Council on Legislation approved the creation of a New Models for Rotary clubs pilot project to develop up to 200 new clubs that were more responsive to the needs of younger professionals. The new models clubs are allowed to operate outside the Standard Rotary Club Constitution and Recommended Rotary Club ByLaws. Many of these clubs have altered their meeting frequency and relaxed attendance requirements. If the pilot clubs prove successful, the Council on Legislation could adopt policies making these innovations permanent."

This week in business:

- David Coffey & Tony Ansolebehere tried their best to greet everyone, however, many other wanna be greeters crowded in and were happy to greet. Michele Brown said he Invocation today and then Bill Lewis led the Flag Salute, our PDG Palmer did GBA and Michele Brown covered for John Wilson who was MIA to announce Visiting Rotarians— which was good since there were none. We had plenty of guests that Tom Burch facilitated starting with: Jane Lewis, Helen Bass, Riho, Tonya Abbott, Scott Stanley guest of the Club, Gail Burch (Lots of Past First Ladies). There were no Member or Spouses Birthdays this week and the two Anniversaries to celebrate were Dave & Loretta Haynes on the 9th for 50 Big Ones, however he was MIA, present was Steve Karcher who will celebrate on the 8th with Dana 28 years. Club Anniversaries was only 1 Richard Ramos 2 years on the 10th.
- Beautiful Bakersfield Awards Night was nice, but would have been even better if East had won instead of West, oh well— next year! Amanda Frank had everyone's signature on her paper to graduate to a blue badge, but was found at the Awards night with a beautiful dress and glizzy belt, but no Rotary Pin. PP Kelly Giblin thought maybe it had to do with the distance, to which she was shot down (pardon the gun pun).
- Riho was presented with a nice gift and gave a fond farewell to BERC. She returned the stinky green coat with a key ring from her college in Japan and a toy that actually climbed up the sleeve of the coat- (much more entertaining than a toilet bowl brush Jerry). Jose Pereyra got the coat and it wasn't real clear why, the Prez was lookin' to shoot someone and he was directly ahead of her gaze.
- Scott Begin and Dave Bass manned the reception table, but Dave was late.
- Riho pulled out the ticket for the 50/50, the pot being $57.00— so $29 bucks and I don't know who won— I guess I was just tired of writing!

Barbara Tarpley enjoys a fine free day, no I mean a shoe free day. Sandi (Cry Baby) Schwartz is lookin' bored, while Jerry Elkind grins for the camera (what is he up to— Road Rally! And Hank Hinse looks on as George Palmer, PDG leads GBA one more time!

10 Things About Being a BERC President

1. Children love new backpacks.
2. Ambassadorial Exchange Scholars like Riho are a great experience.
3. A bright yellow vest is hard to accessorize.
4. You are lucky to have a heckler like Gary Stanfill.
5. You get good at bowing and curtsying.
6. You can create a Roto Lounge to drink at noon.
7. Force bad fashion choices on people with those coats.
8. You can tell Moxley to sit down and shut up.
9. If asked by your spouse, "how was the meeting," he/ she means -did you put your foot in your mouth again?
10. In the end you hope they don't dress you up like a clown.

PP Steve Gibbs Congratulates Prez

Christine Randall who is technically still Prez until June 28— however is taking the next two weeks off, so this was her last meeting! Notice the moronic smile. She is going off to face the music as her jailors will soon dress her up and whisk her away to a room filled with BERCers who are anxious to kick her out after seeing her face week after week at the podium trying to keep order and cover the week's business, always starting with her loooooong moto: "60 Years of Preserving the Past and Forging the Future."
