Good News Bad News Pass the Hat

- PP Wayne Kress told a horrible story of Leslie's car running over her and bruising her and she's doing ok and the car is unharmed.
- Past District Governor Jane Mc Clanahan talked about the beautiful flowers she got in the hospital from Bakersfield East . Pshhhh was nothing..... We know a happy wife makes a Governor a happy Governor.....
- Past President Doug Amstutz is thrilled to have a new hip. He can rejoin the demotion team .....oh wait .....there won't be a demotion this year (yes Sandi is writing this edition of the paper)

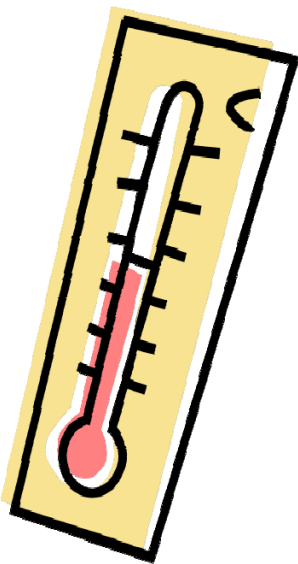

Bakersfield East is proud to present a new member. Scott Stanley (second from the right) is an investment guru with Nureen Investments in the Bay area. Sponsor Doug Amstutz was smart to bring this guy in to the club. He and his wife Heather (a family law attorney who Doug claims to have on retainer) have a home out by the Kern River and a cabin up in the Alta Sierra's. They are parents to two blood hounds and a couple of mouser cats. They love to remodel their homes and every year they host Camp Stanley raising money for local charities (Rotary likes raised money, just sayin').

Spending the middle of the week in the Bay area and coming home late Thursday, he should be a regular and his wife was heard asking questions like "Can I come to meetings too?" Heck YES !!!!

Make sure you introduce yourself to Scott and sign his roster.

Oh yeah, he was President of Rotaract while at CSUB during his college days. PERFECT!!!! WELCOME SCOTT!
