For those of you that missed President Sandi's demotion on Friday, you really missed a great night to celebrate a phenomenal year under President Sandi's leadership and welcome President Terry as leader of our club this year. It was a fantastic night filled with love and laughter, and maybe a few tears. Here were some highlights from the night:

- Sandi came bubbling into the event with a huge smile on her face. She seemed completely unphased by the fact that she had to go to Vons in the Marketplace and order Gas-X.
- Our past president Larry Moxley was quite unruly as the emcee of the event and was unfairly spicy to one table in particular.
- Her love of the bathroom was honored by toilet paper podiums for a special BERC rendition of Jeopardy. Dan Giordano served as game show host for an unusually eclectic team comprised of Kia, Sandra & Dave. Unfortunately Sandra had a poor showing and managed to lose to incoming President Terry.

Join us Friday, July 11 for Terry's first meeting as BERC President. As a special bonus, he will be hosting the Roto Lounge. Come have a drink on our new President!!

Rotarian of the Year Award

Past Rotarian of the Year, Melinda Westfahl presented the 2013-2014 James W. Huber Rotarian of the Year award to Michele Brown. Michele served our club faithfully this year through her service above self. Michele worked selflessly the past year in her role in Club Administration. She kept us on track and faithfully served at the information desk all year long. A big thank you to Michele for all that she did for our club this year!!
