Our second club meeting of President Terry's tenure was another eventful meeting that put the spotlight on family:

- Aaron Markovitz thoughtfully gave the prayer for today's meeting.
- Mike Stepanovich, President of the Breakfast Rotary club was unable to attend last week's meeting and joined us this week.
- President Terry informed the group that he allowed the club a free pass the first week, but called out 8 members who were not wearing their pins.
- Club members donated $585 toward backpacks for local children. If you didn't get an opportunity, you can still donate at this week's meeting.
- This week was a family affair for President Terry who proudly introduced his wife, daughters, and grandsons.
- President Terry's daughter Kara shared 50 years of chimpanzee research at the Gombe Stream in Tanzania.
- She also shared details about primates and their unique identifiers.

Join us Friday, July 25 when David Lyman from the Bakersfield Convention and Visitor's Bureau will be our guest speaker.
