It's Rotary's Birthday Next Week... (How will YOU celebrate it?)

--A World Understanding Month feature

(Sometimes, it's hard to remember that Rotary isn't just a matter of getting up early on Wednesday mornings before heading off to work. On February 28th, Rotary International will have been doing good works for 107 years. Unfortunately, because of the Ash Wednesday public holiday, we won't have a meeting next week. So, here's some information from Rotary.org to serve as food for thought.)

The world's first service club, the Rotary Club of Chicago, was formed on 23 February 1905 by Paul P. Harris, an attorney who wished to capture in a professional club the same friendly spirit he had felt in the small towns of his youth. The Rotary name derived from the early practice of rotating meetings among members' offices.

Rotary's popularity spread, and within a decade, clubs were chartered from San Francisco to New York to Winnipeg, Canada. By 1921, Rotary clubs had been formed on six continents. The organization adopted the Rotary International name a year later.

As Rotary grew, its mission expanded beyond serving club members' professional and social interests. Rotarians began pooling their resources and contributing their talents to help serve communities in need. The organization's dedication to this ideal is best expressed in its motto: Service Above Self.

By July 1925, Rotary had grown to more than 2,000 clubs and an estimated 108,000 members. The organization's distinguished reputation attracted presidents, prime ministers, and a host of other luminaries to its ranks — among them author Thomas Mann, diplomat Carlos P. Romulo, humanitarian Albert Schweitzer, and composer Jean Sibelius.

The Four-Way Test

In 1932, Rotarian Herbert J. Taylor created The Four-Way Test, a code of ethics adopted by Rotary 11 years later. The test, which has been translated into more than 100 languages, asks the following questions:

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Rotary and World War II

During World War II, many clubs were forced to disband, while others stepped up their service efforts to provide emergency relief to victims of the war. In 1942, looking ahead to the postwar era, Rotarians called for a conference to promote international educational and cultural exchanges. This event inspired the founding of UNESCO.

In 1945, 49 Rotary club members served in 29 delegations to the UN Charter Conference. Rotary still actively participates in UN conferences by sending observers to major meetings and covering the United Nations in its publications.

"Few there are who do not recognize the good work which is done by Rotary clubs throughout the free world," former Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Great Britain once declared.

Dawn of a new century

As it approached the 21st century, Rotary worked to meet society's changing needs, expanding its service efforts to address such pressing issues as environmental degradation, illiteracy, world hunger, and children at risk.

In 1989, the organization voted to admit women into clubs worldwide. Today, women are an integral part of Rotary's membership.

After the collapse of the Berlin Wall and the dissolution of the Soviet Union, Rotary clubs were formed or re-established throughout Central and Eastern Europe. The first Russian Rotary club was chartered in 1990, and the organization underwent a growth spurt for the next several years.

More than a century after Paul Harris and his colleagues chartered the club that eventually led to Rotary International, Rotarians continue to take pride in their history. In honor of that first club, Rotarians have preserved its original meeting place, Room 711 in Chicago's Unity Building, by re-creating the office as it existed in 1905. For several years, the Paul Harris 711 Club maintained the room as a shrine for visiting Rotarians. In 1989, when the building was scheduled to be demolished, the club carefully dismantled the office and salvaged the interior, including doors and radiators. In 1993, the RI Board of Directors set aside a permanent home for the restored Room 711 on the 16th floor of RI World Headquarters in nearby Evanston.

Today, 1.2 million Rotarians belong to over 32,000 Rotary clubs in more than 200 countries and geographical areas.

Today's Speakers:

Ms. Joanna Clarke and Ms. Krista Pell "Joanna Clarke's Scholarship"

Ms. Joanna Clarke came to the Cayman Islands 40 years ago having begun her teaching career at the Friendship Primary School in Westmoreland, Jamaica. She taught for three years at George Town Primary School, following which she served as the principal at Savannah Primary School for 16 years. Significant developments, including the shift from a one-roomed school to a multi-class roomed building, were achieved during her tenure. Ms. Clarke's vision/aspiration to see each student excel, is reflected in the school's motto "The Best Always", which she developed. From Savannah Primary School, she moved on to the education department where for 10 years she was the education officer responsible for Language Arts in the Cayman Islands' primary and middle schools.

Ms. Clarke retired from education in 1993, but immediately thereafter responded to the call to continue working in a field dear to her heart. In 1994 she took up the post of programme educator for the Young Parents Programme, a unit of the former Department of Social Services, where she continues to experience the satisfaction of seeing young parents become empowered to achieve their full potential.

Presenting with Ms. Clarke is Ms. Krista Pell. Ms. Pell is the Vice President of HR and People Development at dms Organization Ltd. Krista relocated to the Cayman Islands in 2006 from Canada, leaving behind her previous position as the district human resource and training manager for Best Buy Limited where she oversaw in excess of 1,000 employees and 50 managers. As an adult learning and HR specialist, Krista has taught in a variety of fields including retail, hospitality, financial services, operations and business management.

Krista possesses a BA degree from Wilfrid Laurier University in Ontario, Canada as well as her Senior Professional in Human Resources designation from the Human Resources Certification Institute, internationally-recognized as the top HR designation in North America. Over the years, she has also earned certification in adult learning, HR management, disc Profile and Strengthsfinder. She is also a member of the Cayman Islands Society of Human Resources Professionals, Society for Human Resource Management and the American Society for Training and Development.

Krista is active in the local community, volunteering her time as a board member for Junior Achievement and the Joanna Clarke Foundation and as a member of the Cayman Islands National Women's Rugby Team.

The 4-Way Test

Prizes, Fun, and Excitement Scheduled for Rotary Bed Race

Great prizes, including the round-trip airfare donated by Cayman Airways, will be raffled to lucky winners on Saturday at the Bed Race to End Polio. But you can only win, if you show up at Camana Bay between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. for the funniest race ever run in the Cayman Islands.

The Sunrise Sea Dreams Team features a mermaid (Director Barbara Anley) riding on a mobile sea bed, powered by four fleet seafarers accented with fishnets: Alan Brady, Michael Levitt, Pavlov Rameau, and Kim Remizowski. The bed designer (VP JD) expects the team to run away with the "Most Outrageous Bed" trophy--make sure you're there to see why!

Proceeds from the event will be evenly split among the four Cayman Islands Rotary Clubs to help each club meet its PolioPlus contribution target. Companies sponsoring the

Sunrise Rotarian Garth Arch is YCLA Finalist

Rotarian Geoff Mathews' eagle eyes spotted the news item announcing our own Garth Arch as one of five Young Caymanian Leadership Award finalists. Geoff alerted President Andrea and asked, "I am wondering if there is anything we can do to help it along?" Any ideas, fellow Rotarians??

The winner will be announced at a black tie gala Saturday 12 May, which will be televised on Cayman27.

Best of luck, Garth! We're rooting for you.
