2013-2014 Rotary Year

Engage Rotary | Change Lives

Message from District Governor Jeremy Hurst

It gives me great pleasure to congratulate outgoing President Tony Catalanotto and his board on their successes during the 2012/13 Rotary year and welcome President J.D. Mosley-Matchett and her board as your club's leaders for 2013/14. RI President Ron Burton has challenged each of us to Engage Rotary, Change Lives this year and the best way for us to achieve this is for every last one of us to get actively involved in at least one area of our club that you enjoy and where you can best put your skills to good use.

Regardless whether you are the newest or most experienced Rotarian, you have significant value to offer your club and community whether it is in humanitarian, club service, youth service or our Rotary Foundation. It is your responsibility, as a Rotarian, to contribute your time and talent and it's your President and Committee Chairs' responsibility to ask you to get involved! So please make their life easier by smiling and saying yes when they do and if they don't – remind them that you're ready and willing!

I've also challenged your board to make your club meetings as vibrant and enticing as possible - well organised with strong guest speakers and programmes. We all need to enjoy Rotary to stay engaged and strong weekly meetings and regular fellowship events are common threads that run through the most successful Rotary clubs.

2013/14 is an exciting year for Rotary. We are "This Close" to eradicating Polio and can be rightly proud of our Foundation and its successes, which will only be strengthened as we roll out the new grants model. Our District theme this year, Building our Future with Vision, embraces the need for us to continue to build and plan for the future. However more than

What the Prez Sez...

A New Year & A Clean Slate!

Submitted by President J.D. Mosley-Matchett

Thanks for reading "What the Prez Sez...", my weekly column in the Rotary Sun newsletter. Throughout this Rotary year, I'll share through this column my thoughts regarding our joint mission to "Engage Rotary, Change Lives!"

If you attended Changeover on Friday evening, you know that it was a joyous celebration of the good things we accomplished as a club in 2012-13. It was also a well deserved salute to IPP Tony for masterfully steering the Good Ship Sunrise through stormy weather and rough waters. If Winston is our Sweet P, then Tony is truly our Super P!

So what has the new Board planned for 2013-14? At Wednesday's meeting you'll hear from the Literacy, Youth Service, Community Service, International Service, and Fellowship Directors who have been working hard for the past half year so Sunrise can hit the ground running this month.

As I stated in my speech at Changeover:

- Rotary Sunrise is bigger than any one of us.
- Rotary Sunrise is a beacon of hope that will not be extinguished.
- Rotary Sunrise members are living examples of "Service Above Self."

Now it's time for us to prove it. Your Directors are counting on you.

So, let's get busy...

Club Events and Upcoming Speakers

Keep an eye on the panel to the left on your weekly newsletters as it will highlight club events and guest speakers posted by your Board of Directors.

Community events, committee meetings, fellowship socials, training session, club forums and lots more.

You can click on it for more details or access it from the Rotary Sunrise website as well. This year we are looking to get members and friends of rotary involved with the many planned events your directors have lined up.

Car Raffle Sales in the Home Stretch

Submitted by Director Gina McBryan

There are only a few more days left until the final draw on Saturday, July 6. If you haven't sold all your tickets then there is not much more time left. The final draw will take place on the stage in the ARC at Camana Bay during Cayman27's Island Living Show. Ticket sellers signed up to sell on Friday and Saturday will be busy as last minute purchasers will be scrambling to ensure they have a ticket for this year's draw.

Tell all your friends to come out to the Island Living show on Saturday and bring some extra cash for their raffle ticket.
