

2014 Rotary District 6000 Conference

“Keys to Rotary’s Future”

Thursday, May 1, 2014 – Saturday, May 3, 2014
Gateway Hotel and Conference Center, 2100 Green Hills Drive, Ames, Iowa 50010
515-292-8600

Conference Schedule Highlights

Thursday, May 1

- Bunny Harper Memorial Golf Tournament, 10 am shotgun start, Coldwater Golf Links, Ames; contact Mike Mumma, chair, at mummamalaw@netins.net for complete golf event registration
- “Dine Around Ames,” local restaurants offer special deals for conference registrants, more details will be available closer to conference
- District Governor’s Reception and Meet VP Anne Matthews, 7 pm to 9:30 pm, Gateway, no charge, all are welcome, RSVP preferred for planning

Friday, May 2

Morning Highlights

- Conference opens, 9 am
- Welcome and Opening Ceremony
- RI President’s Representative Alana Bergh of Alaska, opening remarks
- RI and District Awards presentations
- Women as “Keys to Rotary’s Future”
- Rotary Youth Exchange Flag Presentation

Noon Highlights

- All Club Luncheon, 11:30 am
- Rotary International Vice President Anne Matthews, keynote address

Afternoon Highlights

- RI Director-Elect Brad Howard, Humanitarian Service, “Keys to Rotary’s Future”
- Youth in Humanitarian Service, “Keys to Rotary’s Future”
- Engaged Learning Tables—Share/Learn/Connect on topics chosen by District members: membership, fundraising, club projects, grant writing tips, telling Rotary story and more
- Foundation awards

Evening Highlights

- Buffet Dinner, Auction fundraiser for youth involvement, Pianopalooza Dueling Pianos entertain for all

Saturday, May 3

Morning Highlights

- Iowa Breakfast, 7-8 am
- District 6000 Peace Scholar presentation
- Guardian of Integrity, Club, Foundation and Service awards
- RI Representative Alana Bergh, keynote
- Humanitarian Service in Practice presentations
- Engaged Learning Tables--Share/Learn/Connect on topics of youth, six areas of focus and more
- Memorial Service

Noon Highlights

- RI Director-Elect Brad Howard, Our Members, “Keys to Rotary’s Future” part 2
- Invitation to 2015 Conference
- RI Representative Report to District
- Adjourn by 3 pm